CENSUS, SCOTLAND, 1961
S.90
SCHEDULE
Prescribed by Regulations under the Census Act, 1920, as the form to be used for approximately nine tenths of the population in Scotland, for the purpose of returns in respect of (a) Private Households, and (b) Other persons in respect of whom no other form of schedule is prescribed.

For Enumerator’s Use

Name and Postal Address of householder or other person responsible for making the return.

NOTICE

1. The Head, or person acting as Head, of a private Household is required by law to make a return in this form in respect of all persons (members of the household, including visitors, employees and boarders) who are present at midnight on the night of Sunday, 23rd April, 1961, in the dwelling, and all persons who arrive at the dwelling and join the household on Monday, 24th April, 1961, before the collection of the schedule, and who have not been enumerated elsewhere.

Note.—Any one or more persons separately occupying a house or part of a house, flat, apartment, etc., will be regarded as a separate household for Census purposes. Persons who usually have at least one meal a day provided by the household while in residence will be regarded as part of the household.

2. Every person is required by law to give to the person responsible for making the return such information as may be necessary to enable the return to be made. No use may, however, be made of such information by the person to whom it is given except for the purpose of making the return.

3. A person who has applied in the prescribed manner to make a separate confidential return will not be liable to give information to the Head; and in such case the person responsible for making the return will only be liable to include in his return in respect of that person the particulars required in Columns A and B within.

4. The schedule will be called for on MONDAY, 24TH APRIL, by the appointed enumerator; in order that he may not be delayed it must be ready with the answers written in the proper columns early on the morning of that day. If the answers appear to be incomplete or inaccurate, the enumerator must ask any questions necessary to complete or correct the schedule.

5. The person responsible for making the return may, if unable to deliver the schedule to the enumerator personally, arrange for some other person to do so on his behalf. If desired, the schedule may be handed to the enumerator under cover.

6. If any person whose duty it is to make a return or to give information refuses to do so, or wilfully gives false information, or uses otherwise than for the purpose of making the return any information given him for that purpose, he will be liable to a fine not exceeding Ten Pounds.

7. The contents of the schedule are strictly confidential.

ALEX. B. TAYLOR,
Registrar General.
CONFIDENTIALITY.

No information about any individual person, family or dwelling, will be given to anyone not employed on the Census.

1. Names and Surnames. (Column A.)
(a) Names are wanted only to help in taking the Census.
(b) Write first the name of the head of the household (if present) or acting head and then the names of relatives, visitors, boarders, employees, etc.
(c) If a husband and wife are both present on Census Night write their names on consecutive lines.

2. Usual Address. (Column C.)
(a) School Children, Students, etc., who live away from home during term should give their home address, not their term-time address.
(b) Members of H.M. Forces should give the address of their married quarters or other home address.
(c) Resident Staff should regard the private house, boarding house, or other premises where they live as their usual address.
(d) For persons with no settled address write "None".
(e) For boarders who have a settled residence with this household write "Here".

3. Age. (Column D.)
(a) If the age is not known exactly, give it as accurately as possible.
(b) Even where the birthday is only a few days after Census day, the required age is the number of years at the last birthday and 11 months.
(c) For babies under one month old write "Under 1 month".

4. Marriage, etc. (Column E.)
If a person is legally separated, not divorced, write "Married".

5. Children. (Column F.)
Include in the number of children born alive to the mother in marriage, any children of a previous marriage and any that have died.

6. End of first marriage. (Column H.)
Write at (ii) the date of her first or only husband's death or date of divorce.

7. Birthplace. (Column J.)
If born in Scotland write the county of birth (or the name of the City if born in Edinburgh, Glasgow, Dundee or Aberdeen City). For persons born elsewhere write only the name of the country of birth, or "At sea" if born at sea.

8. Citizenship or Nationality. (Column K.)
(a) For citizens of the Irish Republic write "Irish".
(b) For British protected persons give the protectorate or trust territory, e.g. Uganda, Tanganyika.

9. Ownership and Renting. (Panel L.)
Crofters and Smallholders who occupy their own houses, write "Yes" at (a). Those whose rent includes the dwelling house write "Yes" at (b).
By virtue of employment. If the accommodation is provided in connection with the employment of a member of the household and ceases to be provided after the employment comes to an end (e.g. a tied cottage, caretaker's flat) write "Yes" at (c) whether rent is paid or not.
By renting from housing authority. If the house is rented from a Town or County Council, a New Town Development Corporation, the Scottish Special Housing Association, the Scottish National Housing Company Ltd., or the Second Scottish National Housing Company (Housing Trust) Ltd. and is not occupied by virtue of employment with any of these bodies, write "Yes" at (d).

10. Household Arrangements. (Panel M.)
(a) Cold water tap. This refers to a tap within the building. It does not include a tap in an open yard or a public standpipe. If only the latter are available, the answer "None" should be given.
(b) Hot water tap. This means water piped to any form of heating appliance which will allow hot water to be drawn from a tap within the building, e.g. a boiler, tank with immersion heater, geyser, or sink heater.
(c) Fixed bath. This means a bath permanently installed with a waste pipe leading outside the building. It does not matter for this purpose whether there is water piped to it or whether the room where it is installed is used only as a bathroom or not.
(d) Watercloset. This means any watercloset emptying into a main sewer, septic tank or cesspool. It does not include a chemical closet or earth closet. It must be within the building or attached to it.

E.g. For a household which shares the use of a fixed bath and watercloset, and has the sole use of the cold water supply but has no hot water supply the entries would be:—
(a) Cold water tap—Sole use.
(b) Hot water tap—None.
(c) Fixed bath—Shared.
(d) Watercloset—Shared.

CENSUS, SCOTLAND, 1961

SCHEDULE

Prescribed by Regulations under the Census Act, 1920, so that the contents of this Schedule are the same as those in the 1911 Census of Scotland, for the purpose of return in respect of (c) Private Households, and to ensure that persons in respect of whom no form of return is made are included in the census. Persons who were alive on 3rd April, 1961, but not the householders and whose names are included in this Schedule are persons living in the household.

Part I

Write in this column the names and surnames of all the persons in the household.

Name and address of Head of Household

Write in this column the name and address of the head of the household.

Notice

1. The head of a household is the person who is head of the household, including children, employees, and lodgers, who are present in the household on the night of the census, 3rd April, 1961, in the dwelling, and all persons who are at the dwelling and use the house as a house. The head of the household is the person who is listed last on the Schedule of the dwelling.

2. Any one or more persons occupying a house or part of a house, flat, apartment, etc., will be regarded as separate households if all the persons in each household are living together as separate households in the same dwelling.

3. Every person is required by law to give to the person responsible for making the return, the details of the household to enable the returns to be made accurately. The person responsible for making the return may be the head of the household or the person in charge of the household.

4. The schedule will be added on a MONDAY, 3rd April, 1961, by the person responsible for making the return. It must be ready to be completed on the night of the census, 3rd April, 1961. It must be ready to be completed on the night of the census, 3rd April, 1961. If the return appears to be incomplete or inaccurate, the enumerator will ask any questions necessary to complete or correct the Schedule.

5. The person responsible for making the return may, if unable to deliver the Schedule to the person to whom it is to be delivered, place it in a safe place to be delivered by the person to whom it is to be delivered. If the person responsible for making the return cannot be found, the Schedule may be handed to the person in charge of the household.

6. If a person who has been made a return is to give information needed to return it, or who, without giving information, or any other information, is not satisfied with the information given by the person responsible for making the return, he may be instructed to fill out a separate Schedule for that purpose, he will be liable to a fine not exceeding Ten Pounds.

7. The contents of this Schedule are strictly confidential.

Description, and whether Steam, Motor, or Sailing

| Place at which the Schedule is delivered | Date of Delivery |

Name of Master or person in charge of vessel

—WHEN COLLECTING the Schedule

Place at which Schedule is collected, i.e., name of town or port and of harbour, dock, wharf, mooring, etc.

NOTICE

1. The Captain, Master or other person for the time being in charge is required by law to make a return in this Form in the case of every vessel which at midnight 23rd April, 1961, is in port or at moorings or anchorage in Scotland or engaged in any coastwise or fishing voyage. As to persons to be included, see panel above Part I within.

2. Every such person is required by law to give to the Captain, Master, or other person in charge such information as may be necessary to enable the return to be made. No use may, however, be made of such information by the person to whom it is given except for the purpose of making the return.

3. A person who has applied in the prescribed manner to make a separate confidential return will not be liable to give information to the Captain, Master, etc., who will only be liable to include in his return in respect of that person the particulars required in Columns A and B within.

4. The Schedule must be completed by the morning of Monday, 24th April, and must be delivered to the appointed officer who will apply for it at the port at which the vessel is lying, or at which she next arrives in the course of the coastwise, fishing or other voyage.

5. The Captain, Master, etc., if unable to deliver the Schedule personally, may arrange for some other person to do so on his behalf. If desired the Schedule may be handed to the appointed officer under cover. If the ship, having been in port or at moorings or anchorage in Scotland at midnight 23rd April, leaves on voyage before the schedule is collected, and is not expected to put in at any port in the United Kingdom, the Channel Islands or the Isle of Man until after 15th May, 1961, the schedule should be sent by post at the first port at which the vessel touches, addressed to "The Registrar General, Census Office, New Register House, Edinburgh."

6. If any person whose duty it is to give information, or to make a return, refuses to do so, or wilfully gives false information, or uses, otherwise than for the purpose of making the return, any information given him for that purpose, he will be liable to a fine not exceeding Ten Pounds.

ALEX. B. TAYLOR, Registrar General.
Please write in ink. Before you answer each question please read carefully the column heading, the notes for that column and the examples in the enclosed leaflet.

Strictly Confidential

Include in this schedule all persons who are alive at midnight on Sunday, 23rd April, 1961 (Census Night), and who, whether as master, officers, members of the crew (including supernumeraries), pilot, or as passengers, spend the night on board this vessel. If anyone who has not been enumerated elsewhere arrives the next day include him or her also.

PART I
Write in this column the names and surnames of all the persons to be included before you go on to the other columns.
See Note 1.
Babies should be included. If they have not been given a name, write "Baby" and the surname.

SCHEDULE

Prescribed by Regulations under the Census Act, 1920, as the form to be used for the purpose of returns in respect of persons belonging to the Naval, Military, or Air Forces of the Crown (including the Women’s and Nursing Services), present at midnight on the Sunday, 23rd April, 1961, in any Vessel, or in any Barracks, Station, or other premises under Naval, Military or Air Force discipline, and all such persons who join the same on Monday, 24th April, 1961, and who have not been enumerated elsewhere.

CENSUS, SCOTLAND, 1961
N.M.A. (Sc.)

THE RETURN IS TO BE MADE IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE APPROPRIATE ADMIRALTY FLEET ORDER, ARMY COUNCIL INSTRUCTION, OR AIR MINISTRY ORDER.

NOTICE

1. Under the Order in Council and Regulations made under the Census Act, 1920, returns are required to be made in this form with respect to persons belonging to the Naval, Military, or Air Forces of the Crown (including the Women’s and Nursing Services), present at midnight on the Sunday, 23rd April, 1961, in any Vessel, Barracks, Station, or other premises under Naval, Military or Air Force discipline; and with respect also to any other such persons who, not having been enumerated elsewhere for the purpose of the Census arrive on board any vessel or at any Barracks, Station, etc., after midnight ending the Census Day but before the return relating to the Vessel or premises is required to be delivered up.

2. Every such return is required by law to be made by “the Officer or other person appointed for the purpose in pursuance of arrangements made by the Admiralty, Army Council, or Air Council” (Census Order, 1960, First Schedule, Paragraph 4). The arrangements appointing persons to make the returns will be notified by Admiralty Fleet Order, Army Council Instruction, or Air Ministry Orders, as the case may be.

3. The person responsible for making the return must enter in the spaces provided the required particulars as to the Ship, Depot, Barracks, Quarters, Hospital, etc., to which the return relates. He must enter, or cause to be entered in the return, the particulars required therein with respect to all serving officers, and other ranks or ratings who fail to be included.

4. Every person concerning whom particulars are required to be included in the return must give to the person responsible for making the return such information as may be necessary to enable the return to be made. No use may, however, be made of such information by the person to whom it is given except for the purpose of making the return.

5. Attention is directed to the following provisions of Section 8 of the Census Act, 1920

   (1) If any person:
      (a) refuses or neglects to comply with or acts in contravention of any of the provisions of this Act or any Order in Council or regulations made under this Act; or
      (b) being a person required under this Act to make a statutory declaration with respect to the performance of his duties, makes a false declaration; or
      (c) being a person required by any Order in Council or regulations made under this Act to make, sign, or deliver any document, makes, signs, or causes to be made, signed, or delivered a false document; or
      (d) being a person required in pursuance of any such Order in Council or regulations to answer any question, refuses to answer or gives a false answer to that question; he shall for each offence be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding ten pounds.

   (2) If any person:
      (a) being a person employed in taking a census, without lawful authority publishes or communicates to any person otherwise than in the ordinary course of such employment any information acquired by him in the course of his employment; or
      (b) having possession of any information which to his knowledge has been disclosed in contravention of this Act, publishes or communicates that information to any other person: he shall be guilty of a misdemeanour, and shall on conviction be liable to imprisonment with or without hard labour for a term not exceeding two years or to a fine, or to both such imprisonment and fine.

NOTICE

1. The manager, chief resident officer or other person for the time being in charge of the premises is required by law to make a return in this form in respect of all persons who are present at midnight on the night of Sunday, 23rd April, 1961, in the establishment, and all persons who arrive at the establishment on Monday, 24th April, 1961, before the collection of the schedule and who have not been enumerated elsewhere.

2. Every person is required by law to give to the person responsible for making the return such information as may be necessary to enable the return to be made. No use may, however, be made of such information by the person to whom it is given except for the purpose of making the return.

3. A person who has applied in the prescribed manner to make a separate confidential return will not be liable to give information to the manager, chief resident officer, etc., who will only be liable to include in his return in respect of that person the particulars required in Columns A and B within.

4. The schedule will be called for on MONDAY, 24th APRIL, by the appointed enumerator; in order that he may not be delayed it must be ready with the answers written in the proper columns early on the morning of that day. If the answers appear to be incomplete or inaccurate, the enumerator must ask any questions necessary to complete or correct the schedule.

5. The person responsible for making the return may, if unable to deliver the schedule to the enumerator personally, arrange for some other person to do so on his behalf. If desired, the schedule may be handed to the enumerator under cover.

6. If any person whose duty it is to make a return or to give information refuses to do so, or willfully gives false information, or uses otherwise than for the purpose of making the return any information given him for that purpose, he will be liable to a fine not exceeding Ten Pounds.

7. The contents of the schedule are strictly confidential.

ALEX. B. TAYLOR,
Registrar General.
Include in this schedule all persons who are alive at midnight on the night of Sunday, 23rd April, 1961 (Census Night), and who, whether as staff, residents, visitors, patients or inmates, spend the night in this establishment or in any premises within its grounds. If anyone who has not been enumerated elsewhere arrives the next day include him or her also.

PART I

Write in this column the names and surnames of all the persons to be included before you go on to the other columns.
