APPENDIX III CENSUS DEFINITION OF BERMUDIAN STATUS

The following notes were written for the guidance of Census Officers and are not a detailed exposition of the law.

Acquisition of Bermudian Status

1. By birth

A person can claim Bermudian status by right of birth if that person was born a Commonwealth citizen and:

(a) was born before 1st July, 1956, and

i. that person was born in Bermuda;

or

ii. the person's parents were ordinarily resident in Bermuda at the time of the person's birth;

or

iii. that person was the legitimate child, legitimate stepchild, or adopted child of a person possessing "Bermudian status", AND that person had not reached the age of 16 years on 1st July, 1956;

or

(b) was born on or after 1st July, 1956, and

i. at the time of the person's birth, the person had:

(a) at least one parent who possessed Bermudian status; and

(b) both parents who were domiciled at common law in Bermuda.

Condition (1) (B) applies to children born outside of wedlock also; however, the reference to parent(s) should be taken to mean mother only. If such a child subsequently becomes legitimated, through the marriage of the natural parents, and the child does not already possess Bermudian status through the mother, then the father's status may be taken into account as if the legitimation (date of marriage) were the date of the child's birth.

2. By marriage

A person, who is a Commonwealth citizen, can claim Bermudian status by marriage if:

(A) being a woman, she was the wife of a person who possessed Bermudian status:

i. married before the 1st July, 1956, and remained so, at least until 1st July, 1956;

or

ii. married on or after the 1st July, 1956 but before the 2nd May, 1980, she can make this claim by reason of being deemed to possess Bermudian status provided:

(a) she is still married to her Bermudian husband;

or

(b) if her Bermudian husband has died, she has not lived abroad continuously for five (5) years since she became deemed to possess Bermudian status;

or

(B) being a woman described at (2) (A)ii. has had a certificate granted to her under section 20 of the Bermuda Immigration and Protection Act, 1956 upon application, after having been deemed to possess Bermudian status for at least five (5) years;

or

(C) being the wife or husband of a person who possesses Bermudian status, has a certificate granting her or him Bermudian status under section 19A of the Bermuda Immigration and Protection Act, 1956.

3. By grant

A person, who is a Commonwealth citizen, can claim Bermudian status by grant if:

(A) before 1st July, 1956

i. that person, while a Commonwealth citizen, had been continuously resident in Bermuda for a period of at least seven (7) years, was not an exempt category person and, since being resident for seven years, has not lived outside Bermuda in other part(s) of the Commonwealth for a continuous period of seven or more years;

or

ii. that person was naturalized as a British subject by the Governor in Bermuda. These persons were generally citizens of non-Commonwealth countries and acquired their British nationality by the process of naturalization upon fulfilling certain qualifying conditions and applying to the Governor. Naturalization is at the discretion of the Governor, it is not a right;

or

(B) On or after 1st July, 1956

i. that person has a certificate granting him or her Bermudian status under section 19 of the Bermuda Immigration and Protection Act, 1956. This is the discretionary grant of Bermudian status to persons who apply after having been ordinarily resident in Bermuda continuously for a number of years;

or

ii. that person has a certificate granting him or her Bermudian status under section 20 of the Bermuda Immigration and Protection Act, 1956. This is the grant of Bermudian status as of right to persons who apply after having been deemed to possess Bermudian status for a number of years. In the case of children who otherwise qualified there is also a residential requirement; they may apply between the ages of 18-22 as long as they have lived in Bermuda for five years continuously just prior to making application for status.

or

iii. that person has a certificate granting him or her Bermudian status under section 20A of the Bermuda Immigration and Protection Act, 1956. This is the grant, on application, of Bermudian status as of right to persons who met the requirements of a 'Special Case', namely: born of a person who possessed Bermudian status; born in Bermuda, or began to reside in Bermuda before their sixth birthday; been ordinarily resident in Bermuda continuously for at least ten years immediately prior to the date of application; been of good conduct and character.

N.B. The data for the period 1911-1950 were taken from the 1950 Census Report (Table No. 3). The summary population counts for the period 1911-1939 are slightly higher than similar counts given in other sources, for example, the 1970 Census Report (Table iii).

Efforts by the Census Office to account for the difference indicate that in the 1950 report, the population counts include dependents of Armed Forces personnel for the period 1911-1950.

The data for the period 1960-1980 essentially relate to the civilian non-institutional population which excludes Armed Forces personnel and their dependents.
