CENSUS, ENGLAND AND WALES, 1966

NOTES FOR FORM H

Persons to be included

(i) Everyone who usually lives in the household must be included on the census form whether they are present or absent on census night, 24/25th April.

(ii) Visitors spending census night in the household should be included, also those who arrive on Monday morning (25th April) having spent census night travelling.

(iii) Do not include any absent family member who usually lives at another address (for example, a son who has left home and is living in lodgings or a person living permanently in an institution such as an old people’s home or who has lived there for the past six months).

Question 3—Present or Absent on Census Night

(i) Write ‘Present’ for all people who spend census night here. Members of the household who are out on night work should also be marked ‘Present’. So should anyone who arrives before midday on Monday having spent census night travelling.

(ii) Write ‘Absent’ only for household members who are spending census night away from home (other than on night work). For example, write ‘Absent’ for a schoolboy who lives at home during the holidays but is now away at boarding school or for anyone temporarily away on his job, on holiday or in hospital (including a new-born baby).

(iii) For people marked ‘Absent’ write also the full postal address of the place where they are staying on census night. If the precise address is not known write the name of the town or village where the person is staying. For anyone temporarily absent abroad write the name of the country.

Question 4—Usual Address

(i) For school children, students, etc., who live away from home during term, give the home address and not the term time address.

(ii) (1) For members of H.M. Forces who live in married quarters give the address of the married quarters.

(2) For members of H.M. Forces who do not live in married quarters—if they live on the station give the address of the station; if they ‘live out’ give the living out address.

(iii) For people present on census night who live away from home during the week give the address from which they usually go to work, but if the head of the household lives away from home during the week write ‘Here’ for the usual address.

Question 9—Birthplace

To the Manager (or other person in charge):

Please read these instructions carefully. The census depends on the co-operation of those taking part in it and you have certain legal obligations for the enumeration of the people in your establishment. These instructions tell you what to do. If you have any difficulties, ask the Enumerator.

Distribution of the “P” forms

Please give a “P” form to—

(a) each person alive at midnight on 24th April, 1966 who spends Sunday night 24th/25th April, 1966 (Census night) in this establishment; and

(b) each person who arrives in this establishment next day (Monday) before noon and who has spent the night travelling.

If, however, there are any separate private households here the Enumerator will give different forms to them and you should not give “P” forms to any members of these households. Do not give a form to any non-resident member of the staff who happens to be present on duty on Census night.

Before you issue each “P” form please enter (a rubber stamp will do) the name and address of the establishment in the appropriate panel on the form.

Completion of the “P” forms

Every person who receives a “P” form is required by law to fill it in and has been asked to hand it to you as early as possible on the morning of Monday, 25th April, 1966. Information for a child or any other person incapable of completing the form should be given by a parent or other suitable person.

Collection of the "P" forms

Please assemble the completed forms, fill in and sign the certificate below by mid-day on Monday, 25th April, 1966 and have all the material ready for collection by the Enumerator when he calls.

If you cannot hand the completed forms to the Enumerator yourself, you may arrange for someone else to do it for you.

If anyone wishes he may give you his completed "P" form in a sealed envelope for the Enumerator. (Envelopes for the purpose will be supplied by the Enumerator).

Your legal obligations

You have a legal obligation to distribute the "P" forms to the people in your establishment, to see that forms are completed for incapable persons, to collect the forms, to complete the certificate below and to give the Enumerator the information he needs to carry out his duties.

A confidential census

The information given on a completed census form will be treated as confidential and used only for compiling statistics. No information about named individuals will be passed by the Census Office to any other Government Department or any other authority. And if anyone employed on the census improperly discloses information, he will be liable to prosecution.

You must not disclose or use the information given on the completed "P" forms. If you do, you will be liable to prosecution and, on conviction, may be fined up to £10. There is also a penalty of up to £10 for refusing to deliver or fill in a census form or refusing to give information for that purpose, or for giving false information.

Thank you for helping with the census.
