

IECM/IPUMS-Europe Workshop, Paris, France: June 7-9, 2006
- Participant Registration -

Organizers: Dr. Patrick Festy, festy@ined.fr,
Albert Esteve aesteve@ced.uab.es , and Robert McCaa, rmccaa@umn.edu

Travel arrangements and per-diem. As for the Barcelona workshop, each delegate attending the Paris workshop will be reimbursed round-trip economy airfare and will receive 3-days per-diem (€414, which includes food, lodging, ground transportation and other incidentals). Funding for the workshop is provided by the Institut National d'Études Démographiques (INED). Due to budgetary constraints funding is available for only one delegate per statistical agency participating in the IECM/IPUMS-Europe projects. Please complete the form below and return to Dr. Patrick Festy at your earliest convenience with the name and particulars of the delegate. Once received, an official invitation will be extended by the INED for the purpose of obtaining any needed permissions or travel documents. Please note that each delegate must arrange his/her own lodgings. A list of hotel suggestions is appended below. Please plan to arrive on Wednesday June 7 (before 16:00) and depart on June 10. NOTE: Participant is responsible for arranging visa or other travel documents as well as for booking lodging. A list of suggested hotels is included on the attached workshop agenda.

Scientific program. The workshop will consist of two parts.

1. Census microdata reports for countries that have joined since the Barcelona workshop (i.e., similar to the reports presented at the previous workshop):
2. Integration designs for geography, family, education and economic variables for the following countries: Austria, France, Germany, Greece, Hungary, Netherlands, Portugal, Romania, Slovenia, Spain, Turkey, and the UK
3. Report on accomplishments by the IECM and IPUMS groups.

A meeting of the IPUMS-Global group will be held on the morning of Saturday June 10. Delegates who wish to attend this meeting should schedule their departure for late afternoon or early evening of June 10. The non-European delegates will attend the Europe workshop.
